

Privacy & Cookies

This document sets out how Dundas Partners LLP (Dundas) uses and protects any information that you provide when you use this website

Dundas is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should Dundas ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this Privacy & Cookies Policy. Dundas may change this policy from time to time. You should check this page to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy is effective from April 1st 2017.

WHAT WE COLLECT

We may collect the following information: name, job title, company, contact information including email address.

WHAT WE DO WITH THE INFORMATION THAT WE GATHER

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons: Internal record keeping. We may periodically send emails including information that we think you may find interesting using the email address that you have provided.

SECURITY

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information that we collect online.

HOW WE USE COOKIES

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps to analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences. Overall, cookies help Dundas to provide you with a better website by enabling us to monitor which pages are most useful and which are not. A cookie in no way gives Dundas access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data that you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the Dundas website.

LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

The Dundas website may contain links to other websites of interest. Once you have used these links to leave the website, you should note that Dundas does not have any control over other websites. Therefore, Dundas cannot be held responsible for the protection and privacy of any information that you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this Privacy & Cookies Policy. You should exercise caution and study the privacy policy applicable to the website in question.

CONTROLLING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Dundas will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required to do so by law. You may request details of personal information which Dundas holds about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. A small fee will be payable. If you would like a copy of the information held on you, please write to Dundas Global Investors, 41 Northumberland Street, Edinburgh EH3 6JA. If you believe that any information held by Dundas is incorrect or incomplete, please write to or email us as soon as possible. We will promptly correct any information that is found to be inaccurate.
